Invitation to Leon and letter from Dutch Head

Leon Greenman's First invitation to give his testimony

East London Maccabi Association
c/o, 414, Roman Road,
Bow, E.3.

Mr. L. Greenman,
49, Glenparke Road,
Forest Gate,
London E.7.

March 5th. 1946.

Dear Mr. Greenman,

Re: my conversation with your cousin Miss Claire Greenman, she suggested that if I approached you with regard to giving a talk for the above Club on "Life in a Prison Camp", you would consider same.

I will therefore be very pleased if you will favour us with a visit. If this meets with your approval, I would like to suggest April 3rd as the appointed date.

Thanking you in anticipation.

I remain,
with Maccabi greetings,
P. Rozelaar
Cultural Director

East London Maccabi Association.

Forest Gate, E.7.

Dear Mr. Greenman,

In answer to your letter of the 11th instant, with regard to your intended visit to E.L.M.A.

I wish to thank you for your acceptance of our invitation, and would be glad to see both you and your niece here on Wednesday, April 3rd at 8.15 p.m. If in agreement we would like you to speak for approximately one hour.

I am enclosing herewith a map of direction to our premises, which was previously known as King Edward Institute.

Thanking you once again.

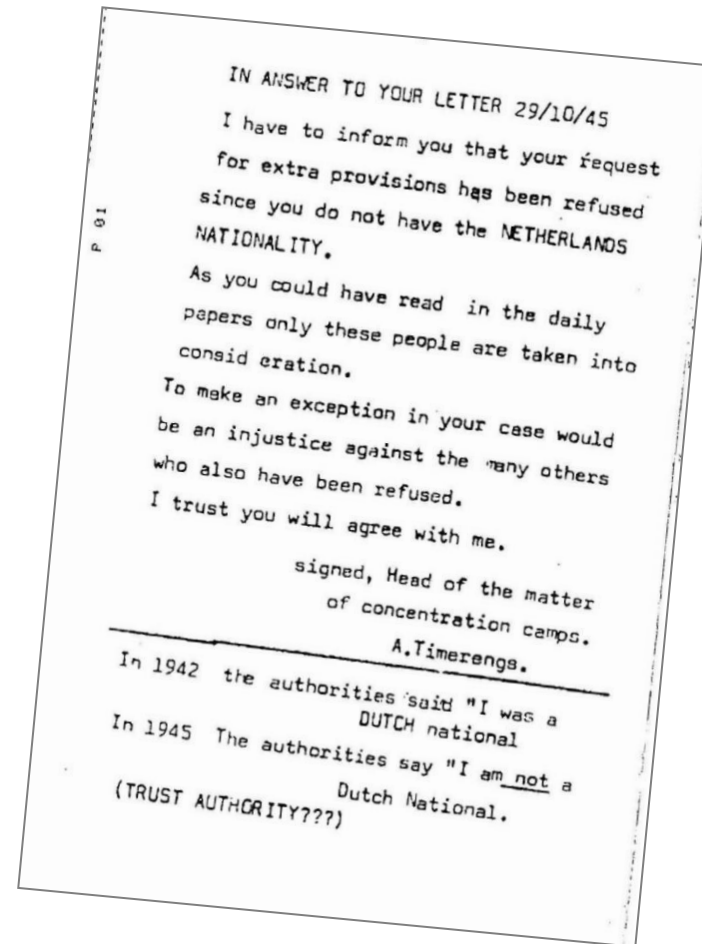

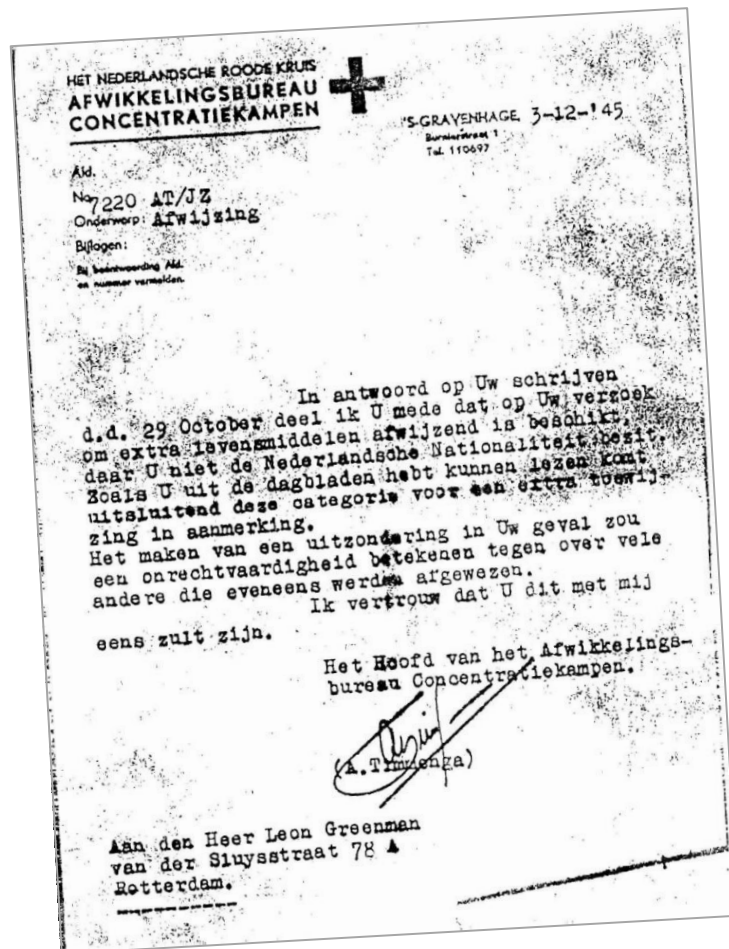

I remain,
With Maccabi greetings,
Yours sincerely,

CULTURAL DIRECTOR
Affiliated to the Union of Maccabi Associations of Great Britain & Ireland
